To,
The Chief Postmaster General
Karnataka Circle

Subject: Request for reversion to GDS from MTS- Case of an official promoted on seniority cum fitness.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to Karnataka Circle's letter number STA/51-1/SK/VI/Pt dated 26.05.2020 vide which clarification has been sought whether Gramin Dak Sevak (GDS) promoted to the post of Multi Tasking Staff (MTS) on the basis of seniority-cum-fitness can be reverted to GDS.

2. The matter has been examined in consultation with Establishment Division and it is clarified that GDS appointed to the post of MTS on the basis of seniority-cum-fitness may be reverted to GDS cadre on own request subject to following conditions:-

- Time Related Continuity Allowance (TRCA) of such GDS, after reversion from the post of MTS, shall be fixed at the same level of TRCA drawn by such person immediately before appointment as MTS. In other words, pay drawn in the post of MTS shall not be protected.
- After reversion, such person shall be posted to the same GDS post which he/she had held immediately before appointment as MTS, if the post is still vacant. In case the same post is not vacant, he/she will have to be accommodated in any other post of GDS in the same TRCA as may be available.
- After reversion from the post of MTS to GDS on own request, such person shall forfeit all rights that would have been accrued while continuing in the post of MTS.
- Before approval of a request for reversion, details of TRCA and posting shall be communicated for acceptance and only after formal acceptance of the above terms and conditions orders of reversion to the post of GDS may be issued.
